Service Description

The National Centre Against Bullying (NCAB), an initiative of the Alannah & Madeline Foundation, is a peak body working to advise and inform the Australian community on the issue of childhood bullying and the creation of safe schools and communities, including the issue of cyber safety.

Driven by best-practice research and expert knowledge, NCAB aims to:

- Provide national leadership in addressing bullying and other negative behaviours and achieve safe and connected environments for young people.
- Change attitudes about bullying and related issues, and increase awareness of the harm it causes to individuals and society.
- Build the capacity, knowledge and skill base of a range of sectors to enable them to address the issues of bullying and wellbeing.
- Drive evidence-based practice in the fields of bullying and wellbeing.
